ANNEX I DEFINITIONS	25

Article 000. Introduction

1. An Equestrian Federation was constituted in 1978 in Bangkok Thailand entitled "Asian Equestrian Federation" (here-in-after referred to as the "AEF") on 18th December 1978. AEF is a non-governmental, non-profit organization.
2. The membership of the AEF is open to the national governing equestrian bodies that are members of the FEI in Asia and have full control of at least one Olympic equestrian discipline and the regional equestrian disciplines recognized by their National Olympic Committees (NOC). National governing equestrian bodies affiliated to the AEF are hereinafter referred to as National Federations (NF). Only one NF from each NOC is recognized by the AEF.
3. The AEF is a recognized body of the Federation Equestre International (FEI) and the Olympic Council of Asia (OCA). The AEF has the authority in organizing the Asian Games, the AEF Regional Games and the AEF Championships within its member countries complying with the Olympic Charter and in accordance with the FEI Rules and Regulations. The AEF is supplementary to the FEI to ensure growth of equestrian sport in the Asian Region and will abide by the FEI Rules and Regulations for international equestrian disciplines.

Chapter 1. Purposes and Principles

Article 001. Purposes

1. To protect the welfare of the horse and the natural environment.
2. To encourage and develop equestrian sport in the Asian Region which was the home of this noble sport.
3. To promote interest in riding, breeding of required type of horses and ponies, their training, care, veterinary control and medication, and movement of horses.
4. To establish regulations and rules for conducting regional events specific to the Asian Region. International events will be governed by FEI Rules and Regulations.
5. To encourage holding of competitions, provide technical know-how and promote highest standard of organization.
6. To organize clinics in judging, course designing, veterinary control, and stewarding.
7. To build up sufficient number of officials, including judges, course designers, stewards, and veterinarians in various disciplines in each nation, to promote these officials to the FEI, so that in the foreseeable future, the Asian Regional Games and Asian Championships can be officiated by judges and veterinarians from amongst the AEF members.
8. To promote understanding and cooperation between various NFs, to support them, and to strengthen their authority and prestige.

Article 002. Principles

1. The AEF, with autonomy and independence from national governments, is based on the principle of equality and mutual respect between all National Federations, without discrimination regard to race, colour, sex, sexual orientation, language, ethnicity, political opinion or other opinion, national or social origin, religion, property, birth or other status. AEF also recognizes and supports the FEI's objectives and principles stipulated in the FEI Statute.
2. The NFs have complete jurisdiction over all competitors and members of their countries.
3. The AEF shall not intervene in matters of equestrian sports which are essentially within the national jurisdiction of NFs (or international jurisdiction of the FEI), nor does it oblige NFs to submit such matters to the AEF for settlement.
4. The AEF shall make continuous efforts to ensure that the equestrian sports are always included in the Asian Games.
5. The AEF shall provide all guidance and assistance to NFs in the organization and all conduct of the equestrian sport in accordance with the FEI Rules and Regulations.

6. The AEF has full authority to submit the rules for equestrian events, conducted in accordance with the FEI Rules and Regulations (specifically the technical and sports rules), at the Asian Games and other AEF Regional Games in collaboration with the FEI and/or Olympic Council of Asia (OCA), when relevant.
- 6.1. The AEF will set the standard for the Asian Games. Any amendments to the standard must be proposed to the General Assembly for approval.
7. The AEF shall also provide all guidance and assistance in organizing the equestrian sports /competitions in the Asian Region.
8. AEF recognizes the FEI as the sole authority and governing body for FEI Equestrian Disciplines. AEF agrees not to become members or recognize or otherwise support any other international organization with a similar purpose except those recognized by the FEI.
9. AEF recognizes that the FEI is the sole representative of Equestrianism and Equestrian Sport at the International Olympic Committee and the International Paralympic Committee where the FEI promotes the Olympic and Paralympic equestrian ideals.

Article 003. Organization

1. The AEF is constituted as follows:
